

BRAND ESSENCE — ONE SENTENCE

Empowering Cape Town sellers to sell their homes direct — with the latest technology and a personal, hands-on team behind them on WhatsApp, 24/7 — so they can trust every step and break free from fees.

Every design decision should serve at least one pillar below. If it serves none, it doesn't belong.

PILLAR 1 Empowered

“Empowering sellers to sell direct.”

The seller is the hero of the brand — never us. Their home, their price, their sale; Sold Direct hands them the tools professionals use. Creative should always show the seller in charge, one step ahead, in motion.

Design cue: confident, upright forms; the seller front-and-centre in imagery; strong verbs in headlines; never patronising, never “we’ll take it from here”.

PILLAR 2 Effortlessly Smart

“By utilising the latest technology.”

An AI concierge that answers instantly, a live deal tracker through every transfer stage, price guidance from real confirmed-sales data. The technology is cutting-edge but should feel invisible — the seller experiences ease, not machinery.

Design cue: clean, modern, generous whitespace; subtle motion; no sci-fi clichés (no circuit boards, robots, glowing grids). Smart = calm.

PILLAR 3 Trusted

“They can feel assured and trust the process.”

Selling a home is the biggest financial move of most people's lives. The brand answers that weight with transparency: a visible step-by-step journey, deposits held in attorneys' audited trust accounts, verified market numbers, privacy by design (POPIA).

Design cue: the deep slate + emerald palette of the site; solid, grounded layouts; real photography over stocky gloss; checkmarks and progress motifs used honestly, not decoratively.

PILLAR 4 Personal, 24/7

“In a personal, hands-on way, via WhatsApp chat — 24/7.”

The whole sale happens in the most human channel there is: a WhatsApp conversation. Always on, always warm, and when it matters a real person steps in. The brand should feel like the sharpest, kindest person you know — in your pocket.

Design cue: chat-bubble motifs, first-person copy (“you”, “your home”), rounded corners, WhatsApp-adjacent green used deliberately; warmth in every touchpoint.

PILLAR 5 Free from Fees

“To break them free from fees.”

The headline promise: 0% commission on the standard path — free because our partners pay us, not the seller. Sellers keep what a full-service sale (typically 5–7% + VAT) would have cost. Freedom is the emotion: lightness, relief, momentum — money staying in the family's hands for the next chapter.

Design cue: “0%” as a proud, ownable graphic device; celebratory but credible; the feeling of a weight lifted. Frame it as what sellers KEEP, never as an attack on anyone else's fees.

VOICE — HOW THE BRAND SOUNDS

Warm Direct Assured Unpretentious
South African Human first

Short sentences. Plain words. Always ends with a next step. Talks like a trusted friend who happens to know property cold.

PERSONALITY IN ONE LINE

The best agent you've ever dealt with — minus the sales pressure — living in your WhatsApp.

GUARDRAILS FOR ALL CREATIVE (NON-NEGOTIABLE)

Never anti-agent, never mocking — estate agents play a valuable role and our own team includes registered property practitioners; we serve people who choose to sell direct. Savings are framed neutrally as what the seller keeps (“what a full-service sale would have cost”), never as a resented cost, strikethroughs of someone else's fee, or “agents are obsolete”. Technology does the admin; people help you sell.
